FEEDBACK FORM

The Intention

The intention of the dashboard is to prototype, and test the combined display of curriculum attainment, general capabilities and natural inclinations so that a holistic understanding of a Learner's overall development can be seen. This approach aims to support the Learner with an integrated understanding of their current achievement as input into their educational journey and future endeavors.

The Aim in 2023

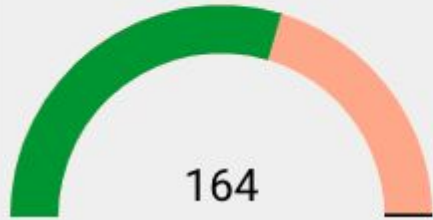

What the SA SAMS Process looks like

The goal for 2023 is still to capture the data in one visualisation space, with enough depth and breadth to be able to test and trial what a combined view of performance looks like. This is still in a test/trial and prototype phase.
